Municipal Software Welcomes Columbia Heights, Minnesota as a New CityView® Client

VICTORIA—Municipal Software Corporation, a leading developer of local government business process automation software and a wholly owned subsidiary of Municipal Solutions Group, Inc. (CDNX: MSM), announced today that the City of Columbia Heights, Minnesota purchased CityView Enterprise software to automate their Building, Fire and Business Licensing processes. The City will also work with Municipal Software to implement a Special Assessments Module.

These CityView applications will be integrated with the city's GIS systems. Future plans include the development of Human Resources, Time Cards/PW Labor Tracking and Purchase Requisition/Payment Voucher modules using CityView.

Rob Bennett, President of Municipal Software commented, "We are pleased to welcome Columbia Heights as our third client in Minnesota. We look forward to implementing their Special Assessment module."

The City of Columbia Heights is a suburb just north of Minneapolis with a population of approximately 20,000. The small and friendly city was formed in 1898 with 1696 acres, 100 citizens and 20 houses. This year, the city is preparing to enjoy a June Jamboree that includes a carnival, parade and a citywide garage sale. Schools in the Columbia Heights School District were recently selected as one of Money magazine's "100 Top Schools in Towns You Can Afford."
